HOW CAN WE BECOME ANTI-FRAGILE?

"Some things benefit from shocks; they thrive and grow when exposed to volatility, randomness, disorder, and stressors and love adventure, risk and uncertainty. Yet, in spite of the ubiquity of the phenomenon, there is no word for the exact opposite of fragile. Let us call it anti-fragile. Anti-fragility is beyond resilience or robustness. The resilient resists shocks and stays the same; the anti-fragile gets better."

UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT

Issued April 5, 1933

all persons are required to deliver

ON OR BEFORE MAY 1, 1933

all GOLD COIN, GOLD BULLION, AND GOLD CERTIFICATES now owned by them to a Federal Reserve Bank, branch or agency, or to any member bank of the Federal Reserve System.

Executive Order

FORBIDDING THE HOARDING OF GOLD COIN, GOLD BULLION AND GOLD CERTIFICATES

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 4(b) of the Act of October 6, 1917, as amended by Section 2 of the Act of March 3, 1933, entitled "An Act to provide relief in the existing national emergency in banking, and for other purposes," in which said Act Congress declared that a severe emergency exists, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do declare that said national emergency still continues to exist and pursuant to said act do hereby prohibit the hoarding of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates within the continental United States by individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations and hereby prescribe the following regulations for carrying out the purposes of this order:

Section 1. For the purposes of this regulation, the term "hoarding" means the withdrawing and withholding of gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates from the recognized and customary channels of trade. The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association or corporation.

Section 2. All persons are hereby required to deliver on or before May 1, 1933, to a Federal reserve bank or a branch or agency thereof, or to any member bank of the Federal Reserve System all gold coin, gold bullion and gold certificates now owned by them or coming into their ownership on or before April 28, 1933, except the following:

(a) Such amount of gold as may be required for industrial and customary use in industry, profession or vocation in a reasonable form, including gold prior to refining and stocks of gold in reasonable amounts for the usual trade requirements of miners mining and refining such gold.

(b) Gold coin and gold certificates in an amount not exceeding in the aggregate $100.00 belonging to any one person; and gold coins having a recognized special value to collectors of rare and unusual coins.

(c) Gold coin and bullion earmarked or held in trust for a recognized foreign government or foreign banks; bank or the bank for International Settlements.

Section 3. Upon receipt of gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates delivered to it in accordance with Sections 2 or 3, the Federal reserve bank or member bank will pay to the holder an equivalent amount of any other form of coin or currency issued or issued under the laws of the United States.

Section 4. Member banks shall deliver all gold coin, gold bullion and gold certificates owned or received by them (other than as exempted under the provisions of Section 2) to the Federal reserve banks of their respective districts and reserve credit in payment therefor.

Section 5. The Secretary of the Treasury, out of the sum made available in the Treasury by Section 301 of the Act of March 3, 1933, will in all proper cases pay the reasonable costs of transportation of gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates delivered to a member bank or Federal reserve bank in accordance with Sections 2, 3, or 4 hereof, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be necessary, upon production of satisfactory evidence of gold coins. Voucher forms for this purpose may be procured from Federal reserve banks.

Section 6. In cases where the delivery of gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates by the owner thereof within the time set forth above will involve extraordinary hardship or difficulty, the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, extend the time within which such delivery must be made. Applications for such extension must be made in writing under oath, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury and filed with a Federal reserve bank.

Each application must state the facts to which the extension is desired, the amount and location of the gold coin, gold bullion and gold certificates in respect of which such extension is requested and the reasons why it is necessary to avoid extraordinary hardship or difficulty.

Section 7. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered to issue such further regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this order and to limit the time specified, through such officers or agencies as he may designate, including the power permitting the Federal reserve banks and member banks of the Federal Reserve System, to refuse for an equivalent amount of gold coin, currency or credit, to deliver, earmark or hold in trust gold coin and bullion to or for the person showing the need for the same for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c).
